

Come to the Occupational Health Internship Program (OHIP) Student Presentations (session 4375.0) on Tuesday, November 13th from 3:00 - 4:30pm in room 10 to be inspired by the next generation of occupational health and safety professionals!

A panel of five 2018 summer OHIP interns will present the following four projects:

- San Jose Bus Operators' Health Perspectives on Split Shifts
Presenters: Grace An & Sophia Sidhu
- Health and Safety Hazards in the Meatpacking Industry in Southern California
Presenter: Alfredo Zendejas Rodríguez
- Investigation of Worker Health and Safety in Cook County Food Retailers
Presenter: Nino Ricca Lucci
- Hazard Characterization in the IBT – Represented Department of Energy Sites
Presenter: Kathryn Gonzalez

(2018 OHIP Interns and Staff)

We hope you will join us and hear how students are improving the work environment!